LEGISLATORS INVITE RESIDENTS TO PUBLIC FORUM

NORTH ANDOVER — The North Andover legislative delegation is inviting all North Andover citizens to join them for Public Forum on Tuesday April 15th at the North Andover Middle School.

“Our legislative delegation works together to provide North Andover with a strong and unified voice on Beacon Hill.” said State Representative David Torrissi. “This is an opportunity for the residents of North Andover to hear about what’s happening at the state level.”

Along with Representative Torrissi, Senator Steven Baddour, Senator Bruce Tarr, and Representative Barbara L’Italien will be on hand on to provide residents and town board members with an update on the state budget process and outlook for the upcoming fiscal year. Residents will also be invited to ask their legislators questions about any issues that are being discussed in town, or at the state level.

"As a delegation, we are all very proud and happy to serve the people of North Andover. We know that by working together, we can accomplish a lot for the Town," said Senator Baddour. "I welcome opportunities to update community members about what's new on Beacon Hill and to discuss the issues that are on the forefront of their minds."

“It’s important for residents to be informed about the work we do.” added Representative L’Italien “We are proud to serve the residents of North Andover, and will continue to work hard to deliver results to the community.”

The forum will be held in the Blaisdell Room at the North Andover Middle School from 6:30-8:30 pm. If you have any questions, please contact Representative Torrissi’s office at (617) 722-2014.
